Introducing
The “White Line”

Great looking “white” versions of many of our most popular items are available to boat builders when ordered in reasonable quantities. Products include navigation lights, fuel fills & vents, locks, latches and interior lights. Polymer parts are molded in white materials while metallic parts are white powder coated. Look for this symbol throughout our catalog for “White Line” products and consult the factory for details.

White Line